Driving ESG Excellence: How SGI Achieved a 5-Star GRESB Rating and Strengthened Industry Leadership

The Challenge

SGI, a leader in the natural gas distribution sector, faced the challenge of improving their ESG performance as evaluated by the GRESB Infrastructure Benchmark.

In a competitive industry, it was critical for SGI to enhance its GRESB score and maintain a strong position in peer comparisons, while also identifying gaps in sustainability practices and reporting.

With rising expectations in the sector, SGI sought EVORA's trusted expertise to guide their ESG strategy and streamline their GRESB submissions.

Our Approach

Since 2021, EVORA has provided comprehensive GRESB Infrastructure support to SGI, focusing on closing gaps in their ESG performance and curating accurate, robust evidence to meet GRESB's rigorous standards.

Our approach involved a detailed analysis of SGI's existing practices, followed by the formulation of tailored improvement strategies.

We worked alongside SGI through each GRESB season, assisting with the identification of improvement opportunities, compiling data and documentation, and crafting precise responses to ensure the best possible score.

Key Outcomes

EVORA’s strategic support has contributed to a consistent and significant improvement in SGI’s GRESB performance, as demonstrated by their GRESB score trajectory:

2021	2022	2023	2024
88	93	93	96

This 2024 result places SGI 2nd among their peers in the “Natural Resources Transportation Companies – Maintenance and Operation” sector, solidifying their position as a leader in ESG performance. In addition, SGI achieved a 5-star GRESB rating, reflecting their continued commitment to sustainability. These results underscore the value of EVORA’s ongoing collaboration, contributing to both SGI’s internal ESG improvements and their external market reputation.

“EVORA has been an invaluable partner for SGI in navigating the GRESB Infrastructure assessments since 2021. Their team’s expertise has played a key role in the consistent improvement of our GRESB score by identifying gaps and opportunities, providing comprehensive support throughout the entire GRESB cycle.

EVORA remains our trusted advisor for GRESB-related matters, which is why we extended our partnership with them for three years. Their dedication and support have been instrumental to our success in advancing our sustainability efforts. We will keep investing resources to enhance SGI’s standards and pursuing sustainability at all levels.”
